October 18th, 1919.

Mr. Norvin R. Lindheim,
60 Wall Street,
New York.

My dear Mr. Lindheim:-

I want to thank you for the very good advice you gave me on the question of my lease. I stood pat and he did nothing to me. To save his face he treated mine as a special case. As near as I can find out only two or three others stood firm. The rest capitulated and paid higher rents.

Trusting to see you up here sometime, I remain,

Yours very truly,

Curator.
